SPECIAL MUSICAL SERVICE

AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

At the morning service at 11:00 tomorrow at the Congregational church the pastor, Rev. Wm. J. Drew, will take for his topic "The Garden Beautiful," and there will be the usual good music.

At 7:30 in the evening there will be a special musical service by the choir with vocal solos by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Ramsey and violin solo by A. E.
Donnelly. A collection will be taken at this service for the benefit of the choir fund.

The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a.
m. with a good class and a welcome for all attending. The Christian Endeavor meeting is held at 6:45 p. m. and the topic will be "Getting Ready for the Larger Life." A welcome extended to all the services.

NOTICE.

DAYTONA BEACH.

DAYTONA BEACH, April 10.—The regular meeting of the ladies' aid of the M. E. church was held at Pinehurst, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. H. W.
Cushing and Mrs. W. H. Freeman, hostesses. There was a large attendance of members of the society and their friends, many taking advantage of this occasion to say good-bye to friends and acquaintances before leaving for the north. Two vocal numbers by Miss Olmstead, of New York city, informally opened a select program consisting of readings and recitations.
Tempting refreshments added to the pleasure of the social hour.

At a special meeting of the Daytona Beach town council, Monday night, called for that purpose, it was voted that the town clerk notify the former tax collector to turn over the tax books to the new tax collector, C. H.
Willson. It was moved that the grubbing on South Atlantic avenue be let in job lots. A bill for $125 from the water works company for the quarter ending June 30th was ordered paid.
Aldermen present, Smith, Thompson and Bleekman.

The Breakers hotel will remain open as usual this summer. Mrs.
Kurtz, the proprietor, expects to remain in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pickett were host and hostess to a very enjoyable dinner party, given at the Kentucky Wednesday, at which 21 guests sat down to a tempting, five-course menu.
After dinner the company repaired to the winter home of Mr. and Mrs.
Pickett on Orange street and spent the afternoon in bright social small talk.

Rev. and Mrs. John Treadwell will entertain the young people of the church at the parsonage Friday evening.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society this week, the mite box was opened from which a gratifying sum was realized. The officers report the attendance has kept up well this season.

Ralph Landrum, of Cullasaja, N. C., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Swarts on Peninsula drive. Mr. Landrum is on his way home from Kissimmee, where he has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Ernest Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Grove spent Monday in DeLand with friends, among the number Rev. H. H. Bowen and family, whom they found well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hinckley and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hicks returned on Wednesday from a trip to Miami and Palm Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, who have been occupying their cottage on Vermont avenue, leave next week on their return to Pennsylvania.

Prof. E. R. Pritchard, mother and niece, Miss Brown, who have been spending the season at their winter home on Hollywood avenue, left Tuesday on their return to Boston, Mass.

Miss Frances French, of Woodford, Eng., who has been in St. Augustine all winter, will visit Mrs. Day, Jr., arriving today, and her friend, Miss Thompson, also of Woodford, Eng., who has been house guest at the Day winter residence on Hollywood avenue all season. Miss Thompson and Miss French were classmates, as well as English women, and have been planning a visit together for several months.

The bathers have been sporting in the surf for the past several days, also the coquina clams, which have been scarce all winter are coming in, and clam fishing has added its attraction to a dip in the invigorating old ocean.

Mr. and Mrs. Crout and family, who have spent a number of seasons at Daytona Beach and were this year located on Hollywood avenue, closed their cottage and returned north last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. K. Sweeney entertained at a dinner party Thursday at their home on Coates street.

A large crowd was attracted to the ocean pier Thursday afternoon by the reported catch of a large shark and two stingarees. The shark put up a big fight and was brought in only after he had received two or three pistol wounds.

The following Sanford party, driven by Harry Cobb, spent Sunday at the Breakers hotel: Mrs. Cora Williams, Misses Linda Mueller, Mary Miles and Margaret Kilbee.

Miss Irene Keating, who has been the local reporter for the Morning Journal at Daytona during the season, is spending the week in DeLand, guest of Miss Olga Bowen.

Invitations to a garden party to be held, Wednesday, April 14th, from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m., at the handsome winter residence on Halifax avenue, of the hosts and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. M. Treglown, Mr. and Mrs.
S. C. Young, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S.
Holmes, are extended to their many friends and acquaintances. The society contingent are looking forward with great interest to this brilliant affair.

Thos. H. Keating, who has been in poor health for some time, is suffering from a severe attack of grippe at his home on Seabreeze avenue.

Mrs. Treenen and son, the latter having been here under the care of a trained nurse, and were occupying Bide-a-Wee cottage, went over to Orlando and from there return north.
Mr. Treenen made marked improve-

H. J. Wilmhurst, of DeLand, spent Wednesday at the Breakers. Also Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ross, who spent the winter on the Isle of Pines, are stopping at the Breakers for the week, on their return to Winnipeg, Canada.

Plans for a handsome addition to be made to the M. E. church are under consideration, more particulars of which will be given next week. Suffice it to say that the tourist class will not be crowded for room next season, as the enlargement will be made this summer.

D. H. S. BALL TEAM DEFEATS PT. ORANGE

WON FIRST GAME OF SEASON BY

SCORE OF 4 TO 2—RETURN

GAME NEXT THURSDAY AT EB-

BETS FIELD.

The D. H. S. baseball team, following the example of major league clubs, went south to get into condition and won their first game of the season from Port Orange by a 4 to 2 score. If the brand of ball that they put up yesterday is to be taken as a standard of play for the year, the prospects of the "Silver and Blue" are bright. Playing on a field knee deep in spots, with sand and ankle deep over the remainder, their fielding was exceptional, a pair of wild throws being the only errors of commission.

Green pitched a fine game for the high school boys and kept the few hits gathered off his delivery well scattered. Sparkman, with only fair batting, kept the D. H. S. boys from scoring until the eighth inning. Three times previous to this, the local team worked runners to third only to fail in the pinch. In the fourth Daytona filled the bases with none out, but Dick fanned a couple and the third man fouled out. In the fifth D. H. S. worked a man around to third with one out and failed to score, and again in the seventh they filled the bases with two down, only to be retired run-less.

The Daytona fireworks started in the eighth, when with one out, Drake was safe on an error by the right fielder. Milligan stole second, while Sparkman held the ball and came after Drake, when Newman slipped to left. Newman took second on the throw-in and third on a passed ball, but died at the far corner. In the ninth R. Green was safe on an error, stole second and third, and waited at that bag while Gardner and Branch were thrown out at first. Drake then came through with a hit and Green scored. A stolen base and a pair of errors by Port Orange let Drake in with the fourth run.

A single by Metts, who advanced on a pair of infield outs and Dick Sparkman's hit scored the first run of the game for Port Orange in the fifth.
They scored their second and last run in the eighth, when Sparkman got his second single, stole second, went to third on an out and scored on a passed ball.

Lineup and score by innings:
D. H. S.—R. Green, 2b; Gardner,

The return game will be played at Ebbets field next Thursday afternoon when the fans will get an opportunity to see some more ball playing at the spring home of the Superbas. A good-sized crowd witnessed yesterday's game—some say the whole of Port Orange attended the battle, but there were in fact between 150 and 200.

KINGSTON.

KINGSTON, April 8.—Mrs. S. E.
Manuel, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. M. F.
Davis, left Tuesday for Bartow, where she will spend a few weeks with relatives before going on to her home in Waxahatchie, Texas.

W. D. Newman, who is visiting his brother in this place and attending school in Daytona, went over to Gainesville, Friday, to enter the declamation contest at the university.

There were nine taking part in the contest from different parts of the state. W. D. won second honors and brought back a beautiful silver medal.
One hundred and twenty-five pupils from Florida high schools took part in the track meet and other festivities of the day.

The Easter program at the church was greatly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience.

ORMOND

ORMOND, April 8.—One of the prettiest weddings possible took place on Tuesday evening, April 6th, when Prof. Burnett Pinkerton, in a beautiful and impressive service, assisted by Dr. John M. Richmond, united in marriage William Hobart Loveland and Miss Mary Simrall at the Ormond Union church.

The bride was attended by Miss Alberta Smith, of Winter Park, as maid of honor; the Misses Mabel Allen, Clinton Corners, N. Y.; Louise Smith, Winter Park, and Lucy Reilly, of Ormond, as bridesmaids. Hubert Price acted as best man, and Archibald McNary, a cousin of the bride, Darrell Carnell and Donald Knox as ushers.

Two fairy-like flower girls, little Annie Carnell and Helen Bostrom, in white, carrying huge baskets of orange blossoms, strewed petals over the pathway of the bridal party.

The bride, who is dainty and petite, was very lovely in a gown of white crepe meteor, duchesse lace and maline, with pearl trimmings. The veil, which reached to the hem of the train, was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor was gowned in pale green taffeta with white chiffon over the shoulders, while the bridesmaids wore white marquisette and chiffon over green taffeta, and carried bouquets of pink Killarney roses, forming an unusually charming and attractive group. Miss Ethel Francis, who presided at the organ, was gowned in white crepe de chene and lace.

After the ceremony the guests were taken to the handsome and commodious home of Mrs. Joseph Downing Price, who is a foster-aunt of the bride, where a reception was held for Mr. and Mrs. Loveland. In the receiving line were Mrs. Price, Mrs. Simrall, mother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Loveland. The hostess was charming in black lace, while Mrs. Simrall was most attractive in white voile. There were many handsomely gowned guests and the whole presented a brilliant scene.

The color scheme throughout, in both the church and at Hammock home, was green and white. The altar and entire organ loft was banked with Easter and calla lilies, and baby's breath, magnolia, bamboo and other greens formed an attractive background. At Hammock home great bowls and vases of white candytuft, baby's breath and asparagus fern were everywhere. Light refreshments were served, and the Willson orchestra, from Daytona, stationed under the broad staircase, discoursed music throughout the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Loveland left about 10:00 o'clock, the bride wearing a going-away gown of military blue silk poplin, and left for their home at New City, N. Y., on Wednesday afternoon, sailing on the Lenape.

The bride, who is the only daughter of Mrs. Carrie D. Simrall, received many beautiful tokens of love and esteem from her Ormond as well as out-of-town friends.

Miss Carrie Penfield is still quite ill at her home on Palmetto street.

Mrs. P. W. Robbins and son, John, of Hartford, Conn., who have been spending the winter in Ormond, occupying the Vining cottage on Palmetto street, sailed on Wednesday on the steamship Lenape, Clyde line, Mr. Robbins having been called north last week on account of the loss of a brother.

Mrs. James E. Francis, who was operated upon a week ago at the hospital of her son, Dr. Nelson W. Francis, is now considered out of all danger, and her many friends in Ormond are much pleased over the good news.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher organization was held on Friday afternoon, March 26th.

While the attendance was unusually small, the meeting was one of interest. The papers read by Mrs. Rigby and Mrs. Merritt were especially fine and helpful to both teachers and parents.

The last meeting of this school quarter will be held on Friday, April 9th, and a good attendance is urged, not only of parents but of all who are in any way interested in the school.

The meeting will be in the nature of a conference to consider ways and means to meet the needs of the school.

The regular meeting of the V. I. A. was held at the library rooms on Friday afternoon last, the president, Miss Weatherbee in the chair.

After an interesting discussion as to the advisability of appointing a hospitality committee, whose duty should especially be that of welcoming and making the afternoon agreeable to strangers who chanced to be present, it was decided to allow the member who had the program of the day in charge the privilege of appointing her own committee for that particular day, and in this manner changing the committee throughout the program year. Mrs. Macon Thornton was appointed treasurer pro tem. of the building fund, and a May party for the benefit of the school piano fund was decided upon. The president then read a list of her appointments of committees, of which the following are chairmen: Library, Mrs. D. W. Waldron; educational, Mrs. John G. Daub; house economics, Mrs. L. Ray Clements; forestry, Mrs. Macon Thornton; bird protection, Mrs. Ellen L. Borden; cemetery, Mrs. J. D. Price; house, Miss Ella Foulke; press, Mrs. Eliza Graves; program, Mrs. Virgil Collis, Mrs. R. R. Kimball, Miss Helen Sawyer; civics, Mrs. Geo. H. Sage; sanitation, Mrs. Isabelle B. Stimpson.

The program of the day, "A Modern Drama," followed. This was in charge of Mrs. J. D. Price, who had planned to give a play, but on account of social events, church and street fair work, decided to devote the day to select readings, which were very entertainingly given by Mesdames Witham, Vining, Sage and Price, resulting in an enjoyable afternoon. Refreshments were served by Miss Helen Sawyer, assisted by Mrs. Collis, Mrs. Witham, and Miss Pinkerton.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY AT HOME OF MRS. W. B. REED

Mrs. W. B. Reed entertained at her Daytona Beach home yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Melville Reed, of Chicago, who has been visiting her the greater part of the winter. There were five tables engaged at 500 and the prize was secured by Mrs. W. F. Ayres, of Daytona Beach.

The players were joined at the close of the game by several ladies who were invited for tea, and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The Reed home was artistically decorated with a quantity of flowers.

"And the Bird Is on the Wing."

It is one of the provoking, but interesting, things about life that it will never stop a moment for admiration. No sooner do you pause to enjoy it, or philosophize over it, or poetize about it, than it is up and away and the next time you glance around, it is vanishing over the hill—with the wind in its garments and the sun in its hair. If you do not go on with life, it will go on without you. The only safe way, then, to follow a story, I mean a story in real life, is to get right into it yourself. How breathless, then, it becomes, how you long for—and yet fear—the next chapter, how you love the heroine and hate the villain, and never, for an instant, can you tell how it is all coming out!—From "Hempfield," by David Grayson, in the American Magazine.

Choir and Quire.

The word "quire," as applied to a chorus of singers is rare. The proper word is "choir."

ENTERTAINMENT WAS GREATLY ENJOYED

ESSAY CONTEST WAS PRINCIPAL FEATURE OF INTERESTING PROGRAM GIVEN AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The literary and musical entertainment given at the First Baptist church, Friday evening under the auspices of the local society of the W. C. T. U., was well attended and the interesting program, which was published in Friday's issue of the Daily News, was greatly enjoyed.

A number of the pupils of the public school took part in the essay contest which was an important feature of the program and there were some excellent papers prepared. These contests are being carried on all over the country by the W. C. T. U. in the interest of temperance education.

The first prize of $2.00 for the best essay was awarded to Claude Trevi-hitt, who had a fine paper on "The Harm in the Moderate Use of Alcohol." Miss Vinnie Drake secured the second prize, $1.00; Miss Una Bond, the third prize of 50 cents and the fourth prize, also 50 cents, was awarded to essay No. 15, the writer of which was not present.

Miss Elmore Hawn received the medal for the best recitation and second and third honors went to Miss Bernice Edwards and Miss Mary Caldwell.

LOTS OF PEOPLE YET HERE ENJOYING THIS IDEAL MONTH

Persons who think that practically all the winter tourists have left Daytona are entitled to another guess. A visit to the moving picture theatres on almost any day this week would have sufficed to dispel anybody's idea that there is nobody here now except the "home guard." For instance, the Crystal theater was twice filled to overflowing, Friday evening, by audiences who went to see Marie Dressler in that screaming, roaring comedy, "Tilly's Punctured Romance." A Daily News reporter who watched the crowds as they came out noted many scores of visitors, who are displaying fine judgment by remaining here to enjoy the most delightful month of them all.

Just now the ocean bathing is ideal; the sea fishing is good, and frequently thrilling when a big bass, a giant shark or a huge stingray is landed; and the delights of boating up and down the Halifax and Tomoka rivers are indescribable.

WILL PREACH FINAL SERMON IN "HOME, SWEET HOME" SERIES

At the Baptist church tomorrow the pastor, Rev. Holmes S. Rightmire, will preach both morning and evening. The topic of the morning sermon will be, "Apprehended for Something." In the evening he will preach the final sermon in the "Home Sweet Home" series and the subject will be, "The Home of a Prince." The fact that the attendance has been uniformly large during the preaching of this series indicates the popularity of them. All who have heard the others will want to hear this one. The choir will render special music all day. The Bible school will meet at 9:45 a. m. The Junior society for the boys and girls will have their rally at 3:00 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. will have its devotional hour at 6:45. The pastor will preach the usual illustrated sermon to the boys and girls at the morning service.

MINNEHAHA CAMPFIRE GIRLS ENJOY OUTING ON B.

The older members of Minneha-ha Campfire to the number of seven more, accompanied Mrs. Wm. Campfire guardian, and Miss Beth Brachhold, who is to marry Mrs. Roxby as guardian, are on a campfire outing at the W. W. cottage on the ocean beach which conclude this evening with a supper in which the party was joined by several young high school students. The party went over the cottage Friday afternoon and the evening held a ceremonial going around the campfire. Minneha Campfire was organized in this about two months ago.

ENTERTAINED AT CARDS AT DAYTONA BEACH

Mrs. Jerome D. Maley entertained at cards Friday afternoon at her home on Silver Beach avenue, Daytona Beach, a number of ladies from town. Seven tables of bridge and of five hundred were engaged; there was a pleasant rivalry for ors. At five hundred the prize secured by Mrs. F. W. Pope, who bridge, where there were prizes, the first was won by Mrs. W. Balch, the second by Mrs. Niver and the intermediate by Mrs. Ira H. Miller, while Mrs. C. M. ham received the consolation prize. A simple salad course was served as conclusion of the cards.
